"CHELSEA 7750," THE GREAT CROOK PLAY, BETTER THAN "THE SEA WOLF" AT THE BIJOU THIS EVENING

Honolulu theatergoers who had made up their minds that "The Sea Wolf" was the last word in the silent drama were most agreeably surprised last night when they witnessed the performance of "Chelsea 7750" at Ye Liberty theater. "The Sea Wolf" scored a big hit in Honolulu and a second production was warranted. It is prophesied that the current offering at this theater will prove more powerful in its magnetic qualities and draw larger crowds.

Robust in action and intense in its dramatic situations, "Chelsea 7750" received round upon round of applause last night as the film was unwound, telling the story of the incessant activity of the secret service and police in their quest for those denizens of the underworld classed as crooks.

Henry E. Dixey and Laura Sawyer immediately became popular with Honolulu patrons of the theater. Their artistic ability is shown to great advantage throughout the entire run of the film, several particularly intense scenes calling for and receiving the highest efficiency on the part of the performers.

Dixey, as the paralyzed detective, bent upon saving his daughter from death at the hands of the crook band who has run to earth, topples over a lighted lamp in order to spread an alarm. He is quickly surrounded by flames and only rescued as he is about to drop in an exhausted condition. Laura Sawyer, bound and gagged in the apartment of the crooks, with a lighted bomb but a few feet away from her, is called upon for some sterling acting and she performs in accordance with expectations. Each of these is a great scene, well planned and ably handled.

The story of "Chelsea 7750" is the story of the undoing of the evildoer. For a time the crook is shown in the ascendancy only to be eventually captured or brought to an ignominious end.

Free from all sentimental and love scenes "Chelsea 7750" is one of the best stories ever filmed. This is the consensus of opinion of the critics of the mainland and local fans must agree that the critics' judgment is correct.

An added feature at Ye Liberty shows the mobilization of the French fleet. A majority of this film was produced at night, during a bright moonlight and, aside from its particular interest during the present unsettled condition in continental Europe, it is a masterpiece of the photographer's art.

Manager Blair is offering a worthwhile bill this week and one that is worthy of the support of all residents of Oahu.

"CASCARETS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, SHAKY, CONSTIPATED—DIME A BOX

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged, constipated bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a still barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver active. Bowels clean, Stomach sweet, Head clear, and make you feel bully for months. Don't forget the children.—advertisement.

EMPIRE FEATURE IS STAGED WITH EXCELLENT CAST

Staged with excellent cast, clear photography and telling an interesting story where a good deal of the atmosphere has been brought out through clever acting, the big feature film offered at the Empire theater for this afternoon and evening, entitled "The Fifth String," is declared by coast critics as a picture far above the average. In two reels this photo play will take precedence over many dramas of the ordinary type usually incorporated in a moving picture theater program.

A one reel Indian drama is graphically depicted in "The White Feather," a portion of the scene being laid in the far western states. A number of prominent people in the world of the movies are to be found in the production.

The program for today also includes the drama called "The Girl Across the Way." This is a picture that is woven about a story which recently appeared in one of the popular monthly magazines.

The comic side of the bill is ably represented in the picture, "McCam and the Octette."

Friday afternoon and evening will see the presentation of the regular weekly resume of world's events as told by the camera.

POPULAR THEATER

"Won in the Clouds" was shown for the first time in Honolulu at the Popular yesterday and opinions expressed by those who attended either a matinee or evening performance was that this three-reel picture is one of the most interesting, spell-binding and thrilling productions ever exhibited. The setting is beautiful throughout, representing jungles and a diamond mine in Africa, with hordes of natives and wild animals, elephants and lions. The story is depicted very realistically. It also shows a large dirigible balloon soaring in the clouds and the monster of the air is the means used by the hero of the plot to frustrate designs of savages and save his friends from a horrible death. While the subject is very sensational it is not exaggerated or overdrawn. It will be repeated tonight. Several other films serve to complete an unusually strong program. The picture of the Hawaii day ceremony will be shown in addition to the regular program during the balance of the week for the benefit of those who have been unable to attend previous exhibitions.

Maj. Sidney A. Cloman, chief of the military bureau of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, and commandant of the exposition guard, will sever his connection with the exposition on September 1. His resignation came as a result of the recent act of Congress, which requires all field officers to the army on detached duty to spend at least two out of every six years on duty with troops.

IMPORTED TANGO AT THE BIJOU THIS EVENING

Have you seen a tango? A tango is not a new entomological discovery; it is a dance. Have you seen the stage tango—say, the Argentine tango—danced in tango gowns?

It will be seen this evening at the Bijou when the Juvenile Bostonians put on the latest New York musical success, "My Tango Maid."

Bright and breezy, tuneful music, laughable situations, a humorous plot running through the two acts, "My Tango Maid" promises to be the greatest success of the company's engagement here.

Such late songs as "My Tango Maid," "Million Dollar Tango Maid,"

Little Clark, who has clever part in the "Tango Maid."

"A Sparerib from the Butcher Shop of Life," "You did, You Know You Did," "Mama Man," "Sit Down, You're Rocking the Boat," and numerous Broadway hits will be sung by the favorites.

And the Argentine tango will be danced by "Billie" O'Neill and "Stubby" Myling.

Because of the sudden departure of Miss Frances Crane, her part in the coming production has been turned over to Miss Connie West. Miss West, who is visiting friends in the city, was with the company several years ago. When she learned of Miss Crane's departure, she volunteered to take her part. As Miss West appeared in "My Tango Maid" in its original New York production, it has been a relatively easy task for her to substitute for Miss Crane.

The new member of the company, a very attractive girl with a very sweet musical voice, will stay with the Juvenile Bostonians for the balance of their engagement here.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR

Try this! Hair gets thick, glossy wavy and beautiful at once—Stops falling out

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.—advertisement.
